

Cynthia's Road to Writing Presentation

Presentations are tailored to meet specific school needs, and are perfect for elementary age children.

Humorous and high energy sessions bring a focus on creativity, and practical ideas will get even the youngest among us started on sharing their stories!

With laughter, pictures, and storytelling, we will help ignite their love of reading and writing!

What people are saying:

"...figuring out that it all ends up great is a wonderful way to ease your little girl's fear of new situations. This Atlanta-based author's story illustrates a wonderful lesson in stopping to listen and seeing things in a new way." - Atlanta InTown Magazine

"I think this is a book for parents as well as children about exactly what the child is feeling when we don't validate them!" - Felissa C., Positive Discipline Facilitator

"The story is beautiful and so well written for a young child to understand. It is the perfect story to teach families how important it is to take time to listen to one another." - Heather P., 5th grade Educator, New Prospect Elementary, Alpharetta, GA
